This matter is before the court on plaintiff's Motion to amend the Complaint to add parties (Filing 34). The local rules of practice[1] require that an unsigned copy of the proposed amended pleading be submitted at the time such a motion is filed.

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff is given until and including February 23, 2006 to file an amended motion in compliance with NECivR 15.1.

DATED February 16, 2006.

BY THE COURT:

s/ F.A. Gossett
United States Magistrate Judge

---

[1]The applicable rule, NECivR 15.1, provides:
Motion to Amend Pleading.
(a) Form and Content. A party who moves for leave to amend a pleading (including a request to add parties) shall file as an attachment to the motion an unsigned copy of the proposed amended pleading. Except as provided in these rules or by leave of court, the proposed amended pleading must be a complete pleading which, if allowed to be filed, supersedes the pleading amended in all respects; no portion of the prior pleading may be incorporated into the proposed amended pleading by reference. The motion for leave to amend shall set forth specifically the amendments proposed to be made to the original pleading, state whether the motion is unopposed, and identify the amendments in the proposed amended pleading.
(b) Pro Se Cases. In considering pro se litigants' amended pleadings, the court may in its discretion consider the amended pleading as supplemental to, rather than as superseding, the original pleading, unless the pleading states that it supersedes the prior pleading.
(c) Filing of Amended Pleading. The granting of the motion for leave to amend does not constitute filing of the amended pleading. The party to whom the court grants leave to amend must then file the amended pleading, after leave is given.
